UNIVERSITY OF NEW ENGLAND
Global Education Program

GLOBAL EDUCATION SCHOLARSHIP

The Global Education Scholarship is designed to provide financial awards to meritorious students participating in approved global education programs.

Fall deadline (awards for spring programs): November 1st
Spring deadline (awards for summer and fall programs): April 1st

Eligibility Requirements

- Applicants must be full-time, matriculated students at UNE.
- Applicants must be in good academic standing with minimum 2.5 G.P.A.
- Applicants must be accepted/applying to a semester, summer, short-term, or year-long program approved by the University of New England.
- Applicants must be either receiving UNE credit for their participation, or conducting research or experience for later use in a UNE program (practicum, independent study, internships, clinical experience).

Responsibilities of Scholarship Recipients

- Represent UNE as a student ambassador through respectful behavior, acceptance of local cultural norms and values, and maintaining good academic standing.
- Contribute to the promotion of global education at UNE. Promotional activities will be coordinated with the Global Education Program office and may include:
    - Presentations on campus
    - Participating in classroom visits
    - Creating promotional materials
    - Writing an article for Nor'easter News
    - Assisting with Global Education events
- Recipients are required to notify the Global Education Program office if their plans change and they will no longer be participating in the program identified in their application.

Evaluation Criteria

- Academic and personal merit (GPA, Essay, Resume)
- Preference, will be given to students who:
    - Demonstrate their commitment and willingness to assist in promoting global education at UNE with specific ideas identified in their essay.
    - Study in a non-English speaking country.
    - Demonstrate how a global education experience will enable them to expand and enrich their current course of study at UNE.
    - Exemplify qualities of a good UNE ambassador through communication skills, desire to engage others, demonstrated leadership, etc.

The Global Education Program office is located in Decary 126. Staff can be reached at (207) 602 – 2585 or at edragon@une.edu or slarned@une.edu.

UNE GLOBAL EDUCATION SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

A complete application package must be received by the Global Education Program by the deadline and consists of the following:

- ☐ This application form, completed and signed
- ☐ An essay (500 words or less) addressing:
  - How the study abroad program fits your personal, academic, and professional goals.
  - Considerations for being a visitor in another country and adapting to and accepting cultural norms which may be very different than your own.
  - Specific ideas for promoting global education upon your return to campus.
  - Financial need may also be addressed in the essay.
- ☐ Budget for program cost and travel expenses (not required for UNE faculty-led travel courses)
- ☐ Resume or CV
- ☐ Copy of most recent transcript (unofficial copy printed from UOnline accepted)

Last Name:	First Name:	PRN:
Local Address (include City, State, Zip):
Permanent Address (include City, State. Zip):
Cell phone:	Email:
Date of Birth:	Sex: ☐ Female ☐ Male	Current Status: ☐ freshman ☐ sophomore ☐ junior ☐ senior ☐ grad student
Major:	Minor (if applicable):	Adviser:
Expected date of graduation (mm/yy):	Cumulative UNE GPA:	Have you been on probation? ☐ Academic ☐ Disciplinary

Program or Course Name and Location:_____

Program duration (circle one): Semester Academic Year Summer Short-term_____
Duration: i.e. 10 days, 5 weeks

Names of two faculty or staff references (letter not required). Please ask faculty or staff permission before listing them:

Name1: _____Department: _____Phone number:_____

Name2: _____Department: _____Phone number:_____

I verify that the information on this application is accurate and that I have read and understand the requirements for this scholarship.

Student Signature _____Date_____