Creative aging brought to you by Maine Artists

We invite you to join us for a four part Seminar Series

Where: St Mary's d'Youville Pavilion
102 Campus Avenue, Lewiston, Maine 04240

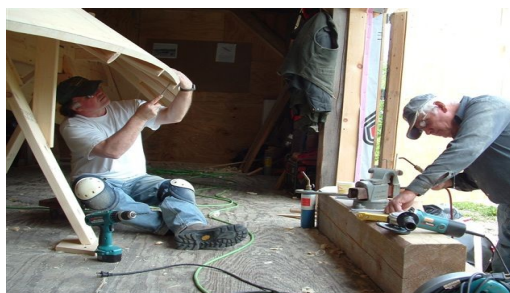

When : Feb 9, Mar 8, Apr 12 & May 10 from 5:30—7:00pm

To Register: call 207-221-4460 or e-mail mamoroso@une.edu

This series provides health professionals, students, and faculty with an understanding of the important link between art and creativity in healthy aging. Each seminar will explore ideas of how creativity affects health of the body, mind, and spirit of older adults. Maine master artists will demonstrate their craft and discuss the role of creative activities in their lives.

Seminar 2, Mar 8, 2012 : Tom Cote and his granddaughter Ellyzabeth Bencivenga come from a long line of Acadian woodcarvers. They will explain the craft and its role in their lives.

Seminar 3, April 12, 2012: John Connors and Dave Wylie build traditional bateaux (logging boats). They will talk about the history of these boats and life as a log run worker on Maine's rivers.

Seminar 4, May 10, 2012 : Singing sisters Helene Sylvain and Irene Mercier and accordion player Irene Coady will perform traditional New England and French Canadian songs.

CME Credits/UNE contact hours available.

Presented by the University of New England Maine Geriatric Education Center, and with Cultural Resources Inc, St Mary's d'Youville Pavilion and the Maine Arts Commission
