

Maine AHEC Network

2014-2015 Annual Report Highlights

4,073
Total Participants

Enhancing access to quality healthcare, particularly primary and preventive care, by improving the supply and distribution of healthcare professionals through community/academic educational partnerships.

Pipeline Programs

Expose students to health careers and encourage to pursue post-secondary education in primary.

1,788
Participants
(9th-12th graders)

With 120 participants grades 9-12 in pipeline programs lasting half-a-day to 3 full days.

Most from disadvantaged or rural backgrounds

Clinical Training

Improve readiness, willingness, and ability of health professions trainees to serve in primary care, and rural and underserved community settings.

Facilitated

305

student rotations

With 8 Health Professions

medical, dental, physician assistant, pharmacy, nursing, nurse practitioner, physical therapy, allied health

And 17 interprofessional student rotations

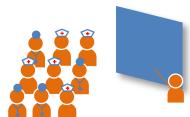

Clinical Training Sites include:

- 163 primary care settings
- 53 in a rural area
- 33 in a medically underserved area
- 3 Interprofessional clinical sites

Provide health professionals with access to resources that support practice, reduce professional isolation, disseminate best practices, improve quality of healthcare and reduce health disparities.

1,902

Continuing Education Participants

Most employed in medically underserved communities