

End-of-Life Conversations: What to Say and Do

MAY 4, 2016

Dr. Diane Meier, Director, Center to Advance Palliative Care

Conference – May 4, 2016

Noon – 2:30 p.m., Talbot Hall, USM Portland
$20 – lunch included

Don't miss this rare opportunity to hear Dr. Diane Meier, international expert on hospice and palliative care, give a step-by-step guide for talking about what matters most, when every moment counts.

Who should attend? Individuals, families, healthcare professionals, faith leaders, students, caregivers and anyone wanting to learn how to start these important conversations. Certificate of attendance will be provided for CEU purposes.

Post-Conference Forums

5:30 p.m., Light supper included/Free

South Portland: May 19, Congregation Bet Ha'am

Kennebunk: July 7, First Parish UU Church

Bridgton: July 14, Bridgton Hospital

Falmouth: Sept. 13, Falmouth Congregational Church

Brunswick: Oct. 20, Curtis Memorial Library

York: Nov. 16, First Parish Congregational Church

Hospice
of Southern Maine

6TH ANNUAL
Anne L. Hunter Memorial
Thresholds
CONFERENCE

These events are made possible by an endowment from the Rev. Anne L. Hunter, MD fund, and the generous support of

MEHAF
MAINE HEALTH ACCESS
FOUNDATION

Home Instead
SENIOR CARE®
To us, it's personal.

Maine Medical Center
MaineHealth
centered around you

NEW ENGLAND
Cancer Specialists

To register and for more information: hospiceofsouthernmaine.org/thresholds hfarber@hospiceofsouthernmaine.org or 207-289-3643