No-frills catering for student organizations

Decary Dining Hall is located on the lower level of the Decary building. Please contact the catering office at x 2869 to make arrangements for after hours or weekend pick-ups.

Equipment Policy

The University of New England Dining Services is cooking up something special for your organization. In an effort to accommodate the limited budgets of student groups this guide was developed to meet your needs! Dining Services asks that the following policies and procedures be adhered to in exchange for the discount pricing. Remember, advanced planning increases your options and our flexibility.

Here's the deal...

A limited menu is available with discounted pricing. All paper goods to go with your items will be provided based on the number of servings ordered. Additional paper goods may be purchased with your order. Food will be served in disposable pans, and disposable serving utensils will be provided as well. A budget line must be provided when your event is booked.

We need 3 business days' notice

All orders are to be placed 3 business days before the event. Orders must be placed through the online catering for located on une.dining.com. If you have any questions please call the catering office at 602-2869.

Pick-up ONLY

Dining Services does not provide delivery service or clean-up of any event. These tasks are the responsibilities of the sponsoring organization. All food and beverage must be picked up in the Decary dining hall. If applicable to your event, any equipment must be returned to the dining hall after your event or a replacement fee will be charged to the sponsoring organization. Organizations will also be charged a replacement fee for any broken equipment.

What happens if we need to cancel or make changes to our order?

Any cancellation must be made within 24 hours of the event. Any cost incurred due to the cancellation after the deadlines will be passed on to the student organization. All meals are served in disposable pans, and feed 25-30 ppl.
