

Fulfilling our commitments... Connecting with your values.

Ohio State University is just one of Sodexo's 89 partners earning the spot in the review.

Sodexo Helps our Partners Shine

Sodexo is helping our partners achieve sustainability recognition. It starts with shared goals and comes to life with our combined expertise.

- 89 Sodexo partners earned a spot on The Princeton Review's Guide to Green Colleges
- 29 of our partners are on Sierra Club's list of green campuses
- 50+ student groups are working with Sodexo on the Real Food Challenge

"We join each of the colleges and universities in celebrating their achievements and we are proud of Sodexo's strategic partnership to help you to meet your sustainability objectives,"

Improving Animal Welfare

Sodexo's Commitments Praised by the Humane Society

Sodexo is being praised for our commitments to source only cage-free shelled eggs by July 2014 and eliminate the use of gestation stalls in our supply chain by 2022.

"The impact of Sodexo's announcement significantly advances the industry's progress toward a more humane and sustainable food system," said Wayne Pacelle, president and CEO of the Humane Society of the United States.

The commitment to animal welfare is just one part of Sodexo's overall approach to sustainability and corporate social responsibility. Last year, we launched a Sustainable Seafood Initiative, which includes a commitment to having 100% of its fresh and frozen contracted seafood Marine Stewardship Council or Best Aquaculture Practices certified sustainable by 2015.

Pilot Program Reduces Food Waste by More Than 30%

Campuses piloting the LeanPath food waste tracking system are seeing dramatic reduction in pre-consumer food waste. Sodexo couples LeanPath – our back-of-the-house solution – with programs like trayless dining in the front of the house, for a one-two punch against food waste.
