UNE GPACU Guidelines

These Guidelines are in addition to the GPACU Guidelines for Cross Registration found on the GPACU website and the GPACU Cross Registration Application.

For UNE Students:
- Students are required to fill out a Transfer of Course Work form in addition to the GPACU Cross Registration Application for each course. Both forms should be turned into the Registrar's Office at the same time. We will not process the GPACU Application without this supporting documentation.
- We will not approve GPACU applications for export if the course is offered at your UNE home campus. The only exception to this is if you need the course to graduate and the course offered at UNE is full or has a time conflict with another course you need to graduate.
- You must be registered for credits at UNE that are equal to or exceed the number of credits you apply for through GPACU.
- If registering for GPACU courses would place a student over 18 credits, they are not eligible for GPACU. Students can still pursue courses at another institution without going through GPACU by registering and paying for them directly with the other institution. Students would still need to complete the Transfer of Course Work Form in order to have the credits applied to their UNE transfer credits.
- UNE is willing to export students after our add/drop period has closed if the add/drop period at the host institution is still open. Please refer to the individual host institution's academic calendar.
- UNE students are required to obtain their Academic Advisor's signature on the GPACU Application.
- We are not able to approve incomplete forms. Please ensure all fields are entered and all signatures obtained before attempting to turn your form into the Registrar's Office.

All students:
- UNE will not approve GPACU applications for student import after the UNE add/drop period has closed. This is in the best interest of the student and their academic record. Please refer to the UNE Academic Calendar.
- We will not approve the import or export of online courses.
- To withdraw from a course you registered for through GPACU, both institutions must be notified. Please contact the UNE Registrar's Office and inquire on the procedure for withdrawing from a GPACU course.
- Please note that ROTC and Military courses do not fit the GPACU Guidelines.
Greater Portland Alliance of Colleges and Universities
Cross Registration Application Guidelines

Purpose of Cross-Registration:
Cross-registration benefits students at Alliance member schools by expanding the number and kinds of courses available to them. Cross-registration supplements the course offerings at each member school, so that students may take courses that would not otherwise be available to them.

Eligibility:
Home Institution
• The student must meet the definition of “matriculated student” at the Home institution (including the cross-registered course).
• Students on formal exchange programs are considered matriculated if they meet the matriculation requirements of their Home institution.
• Be in good academic standing.
• Have approval of appropriate academic authorities at the Home institution.
• Not be a first-semester freshman.
• Meet all other requirements established by the Home institution.

Host Institution
• The student must follow Alliance procedures for cross-registration.
• Enrollment is on a space-available basis.
• The student must meet course prerequisites (or equivalents) set by the Host school.
• The student must gain approval from the appropriate academic authorities, if required by the Host institution.

Courses covered:
All courses are eligible with the following exceptions:
• Non-Credit courses and non-degree program courses.
• Graduate courses.
• Any course offered outside the normal academic year – e.g., summer, inter-session.

Response:
• After receiving your cross registration form(s), your home institution’s registrar will process your application and forward it to the host institution for approval.
• In most cases, your home institution’s registrar will notify you once the host institution processes your application. However, please check with your home institution registrar to confirm response method.

Tuition and Fees:
• Tuition is paid to your home institution.
• Course fees (for lab and/or materials) are paid to the host institution.
• Host institution service fees may be applicable. Consult with your host institution for further details.

Dropping or Withdrawing from a course:
You may drop or withdraw from a course based on the policy and procedures of your home institution. Consult with your home institution’s registrar.

Other Limits:
• Each student is limited to three courses per year and a total of five courses over the period of the student’s undergraduate studies.

Calendar Reminders:
• There are academic calendar differences among the GPACU schools.
• Students are expected to meet host institution calendar expectations (i.e. holidays and vacation periods may differ but students are expected to be in class at the host institution even if the home institution is not in session).
• Calendar differences may result in a wait of processing grades from the host institution. This may result in a delay in verifying the completion of the graduation requirements. Consult with your home institution’s registrar about this.
