Knee Pain Study

University of New England, Department of Physical Therapy is conducting research aimed at gathering information to understand how chronic pain from knee osteoarthritis affects movement.

For People

- Ages 50-80
- With or without knee pain
- No injuries to feet, hips, spine
- No Knee Replacements

Will Include

- Questions about knee pain & function
- Strength tests
- Walking analysis
- Test of how you learn new movement patterns
- Test of sensitivity to deep pressure and holding the hand in ice water bath for no more than 1 minute

Study Details

- 2 test sessions, flexible schedule
- Qualified participants receive reimbursement of up to $60 for time/travel
- Testing on UNE Portland Campus

For more information contact: unedptresearch@gmail.com
207-221-4113

This research is supported by the UNE Office of Sponsored Programs and the Westbrook College of Health Professions

UNE Knee Pain Study
unedptresearch@gmail.com
207-221-4113

Approved for Use Between 9/24/15
9/23/16

University of New England Institutional Review Board