Comparative Education in a Global Context

EDU 242 (SGA, 3 credits)

Lane W. Clarke, Ed.D. | lclarke1@une.edu

This spring semester course investigates comparative education theories and philosophy to examine education in different contexts, and it includes spending eight days in Ireland in mid-May after final exams. By investigating contexts locally (our community), nationally (our country) and globally (a different country), students will extend their knowledge about society and how a country's culture is enacted through its educational institutions. In Ireland, students will visit schools and will also learn about Irish culture and history by touring castles, the famous Cliffs of Moher and the Aran Islands. Other highlights may include exploring the Ring of Kerry and spending time in Galway, Cork, Kinsale and Killarney.

Students are encouraged to apply for travel scholarships in the Global Education Office.
