ICELAND

Natural History of Iceland

MAR 436/436L (4 Credits) Markus Frederich, Ph.D. | mfrederich@une.edu

Travel Dates: May 17-30, 2027 | Estimated Travel Fee: $3,900

Sample Itinerary

DAY 1 | Overnight Flight
Fly from Boston to Reykjavik.

DAY 2 | Explore Reykjavik
Tour of the iconic sites of the city. Lunch and dinner.

DAY 3 | The Golden Circle
Drive The Golden Circle route. Lunch on the road and return to Rekjavik for dinner.

DAY 4 | Volcanoes & Lava Fields
Drive to the Reykjanes Peninsula to hike in the most recent lava fields from volcanic eruptions in Iceland. Visit either the Reykjanesfólkvangur preserve or Mount Keilir. Return to Reykjavík for dinner.

DAY 5 | Drive to Akureyri
Breakfast, then drive north to Akureyri. Explore waterfalls, craters, and the most powerful hot water spring in Europe. Tour the ice caves of Langjökull, the second largest glacier in Iceland. Dinner and overnight in Akureyri.

DAY 6 | Akureyri
Explore Akureyri and go horseback riding.

DAY 7 | Mývatn
Breakfast and drive to the Lake Mývatn region. Explore Goðafoss waterfall, Dimmuborgir lava fields, and Krafla volcano. In Námafjall, see a spectacular volcanic landscape with hot springs, boiling mud pools, and fumaroles. Return to Akureyri for dinner.

DAY 8 | Whale Watch & Snorkeling
Breakfast. Board boat for whale watching and snorkeling. Return to Akureyri for dinner and overnight.

DAY 9 | Diamond Circle
Breakfast and Diamond Circle tour with puffin cliffs, large waterfalls, and Ásbyrgi National Park. Return to Akureyri for dinner and overnight.

DAY 10 | Snorkeling in Nesgjá & Litlaá
Breakfast. Drive north to Húsavik, snorkel between the European and the American tectonic plate, and see hydrothermal springs under water. Return to Akureyri for dinner and overnight.

DAY 11 | Hólar
Breakfast, then explore culture and history in Hólar, including the Episcopal See of Northern Iceland, Hólar Cathedral, and the Nyibaer turf house. Lunch and tour of aquaculture facility. Drive to Sauðárkrókur marine lab, explore an intertidal region, and return to Akureyri for dinner.

DAY 13 | Return to Reykjavík
Breakfast, pack, drive back to Reykjavík, lunch, visit Viking museum, and dinner.

DAY 14 | Reykjavík
Visit Reykjavík. See the Glymur waterfall.

DAY 15 | Fly Home
Return flight to Boston.

Please note that itinerary is subject to change.