

Applied Arts and Social Justice Elective Approval Form

Students must complete a project with an arts theme within each elective course if the course is being counted toward the AASJ Certificate. Electives must be approved by course faculty member and the Coordinator of the AASJ certificate using this form.

Title of course: _____

Faculty member: _____

Student name: _____

Arts project title: _____

Signatures:

Faculty member: _____ Date _____

Student: _____ Date: _____

AASJ Certificate Coordinator: _____ Date: _____

Pre-Approved AASJ Electives:

Community Organizing
Applied Arts and Social Justice
Writing as a Tool for Personal and Social Change
Social Work With Children, Adolescents and Parents
Narrative Therapy
Grief, Loss, Death, and Dying in Social Work Practice
SW in the Political Arena
Domestic Violence
Grant writing
Conflict mediation
Group Work/Mutual Aid
Mindfulness
Advanced Trauma
Narrative Therapy

Note: other elective(s) may be utilized with permission of faculty and AASJ coordinator.