Anatomy and Art in Renaissance Italy

BIO 290 (3 credits)

Kaushik (Kash) Dutta, M.A. | kdutta@une.edu

Travel to Italy in May as part of this semester-long seminar examining the fascinating origins of anatomical study in Renaissance Italy! During the 10-day trip you will tour historic sites in Rome, Florence, Bologna and Padua, representing the birthplace of modern anatomical science in some of Europe's oldest universities. During the weekly seminars and the May travel experience you will discover the intriguing connections between human anatomy and the art of the Renaissance masters, including Leonardo Da Vinci, Michelangelo, Caravaggio and Bernini.

The travel fee includes round-trip airfare and all travel within Italy, hotel accommodations, breakfast and dinner each day, and all fees for museums and tour guides.

Students are encouraged to apply for travel scholarships in the Global Education Office.
