

RESOURCES & REFERENCES FOR IPCP FACULTY

IPCP SUMMIT

Developing Interprofessional Collaborative Practice

Agency for Healthcare Quality & Research (AHRQ). TeamSTEPPS program. A national health profession initiative designed to create organizational cultures characterized by high quality care, collaboration & information sharing, conflict resolution capabilities, & role understanding. Web resource includes readiness instruments, TeamSTEPPS training materials, videos, webinars, & regional/ national training information. http://teamstepps.ahrq.gov/about-2cl_3.htm

Association of American Medical Colleges. Teaching for Quality (Te4Q) & Patient Safety (2013). Integrating QI & patient safety across the continuum of medical education: Report of an expert panel. Web site offers webinars, podcasts & materials addressing teaching for collaboration, teamwork, quality, & safety. <https://www.aamc.org/initiatives/cei/te4q>/<https://www.aamc.org/initiatives/cei/te4q/>

Canadian Interprofessional Health Collaborative. Web site contains resources & tool kits to support IPE and collaborative clinical practice. <http://www.cihc.ca/>

Cochrane Collection. Systematic reviews of primary research addressing IPE/IPCP outcomes. <http://www.cochrane.org/>

Institute for Healthcare Improvement. Organization committed to improving health & healthcare worldwide. Resources address IPE, IPCP, Quality Improvement, & Population-based Triple Aim. The “Open School” provides on-line course ware exploring patient safety, QI, leadership, & teamwork/collaboration. <http://www.ihl.org/Pages/default.aspx>

Interprofessional Education Collaborative Expert Panel Report (2011). USA-based Report authored by leaders from medicine, nursing, pharmacy, dental, & public health identifying 4 core interprofessional competencies. The report includes a synthesis of IPE literature. <http://www.aacn.nche.edu/education-resources/ipecreport.pdf>

Josiah Macy, Jr. Foundation. National foundation dedicated to improving the education of health professionals. Web site contains resources addressing IPE/ teamwork, curriculum models for clinical education, and education for the care of underserved populations. Includes a recent report of a national Summit (2013) aligning IPE with clinical practice re-design. <http://macyfoundation.org/>

National Center for Interprofessional Education & Practice. HRSA-designated organization bringing together health care practice & education for a new nexus, resulting in better care & healthier communities. Resources include an extensive library of IPE/IPCP articles, validated evaluation instruments, community forums & exchange. <https://nexusipe.org/>

University of Toronto Interprofessional Education Centre. Web site contains curricular ideas, quick links, tools, archived videos, and resources for IPCP. <http://www.ipe.utoronto.ca/what-interprofessional-education>