if i see beauty in pain does it hurt less?

Sarah R. Gorham, Visiting Assistant Professor
UNE Department of Creative and Fine Arts

Representatives from these local community organizations are located in Finley Recreation Center.

211 Maine—www.211maine.org
2-1-1 Maine is a comprehensive statewide directory of over 8,000 health and human services available in Maine. The toll free 2-1-1 hotline connects callers to trained call specialists who can help 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

Brain Injury Information Network—www.biin.org
The Brain Injury Information Network of Maine is a partnership of organizations working together to share information, provide education, and promote promising practices that will benefit individuals with brain injuries and their families.

Maine CITE, Maine’s Assistive Technology (AT) Program—www.maine创新型.org
The Maine Department of Education’s CITE Program is the statewide organization designed to help make assistive and universally designed technology more available to Maine children and adults who need them.

The Iris Network—www.theiris.org
Helping people who are visually impaired or blind attain independence and community integration.

State of Maine, Division for the Blind and Visually Impaired—www.maine.gov/rehab/dbvi
Comprehensive services for visually impaired and blind individual of all ages.

NeuroRestorative—www.neurorestorative.com
NeuroRestorative is a leading provider of post-acute rehabilitation services for people of all ages with brain and spinal cord injuries and other neurological challenges, in a variety of locations and settings, home and institutional settings.

Goodwill NeuroRehab Services at BaySide—www.goodwillnne.org/programs/clinical-services/brain-injury-services
Goodwill NeuroRehab Services offers comprehensive brain injury services and treatment options for individuals with acquired brain injuries. Our services help individuals increase their independence within their home and community environments.

Michael T. Goulet Traumatic Brain Injury and Epilepsy Foundation—www.michaelgouletfoundation.org
Founded in memory of Michael T. Goulet, to raise awareness and provide education about Traumatic Brain Injuries and Epilepsy Disorders, by empowering individuals and their families with the information and support they need for medical assistance with the direct intention of providing a positive impact on the lives of affected individuals.

National TBI and Epilepsy Resources—www.traumaticbraininjury.org
National TBI and Epilepsy Resources—www.epilepsyfoundation.org
Epilepsy Association of America—www.biausa.org
American Epilepsy Society—www.aesnet.org

RESOURCES

SPECIAL THANKS

TENH ANNUAL INTERPROFESSIONAL

Spring Symposium Neuroscience Discoveries and Clinical Practice

SPRING SYMPOSIUM
Neuroscience Discoveries and Clinical Practice

STATE OF MAINE, D 2, 2012

Sarah R. Gorham, Visiting Assistant Professor
UNE Department of Creative and Fine Arts

Acrylic on Canvas, 18” x 24,” 2012

Be sure to check out the Library Resources table in Finley.

Scan this QR code to see a full list of resources.